Dear Scoutmaster,

The National Council defines “Scouting Alumni” as anyone who has been positively impacted by Scouting: former Scouts, their family members, volunteers, Scouters, community leaders, and millions of Americans who benefit from Scouting. Certainly, new Eagle Scouts are the best candidates to become members of the Grand Canyon Council Alumni Association.

Each year, an estimated of 1,250 scouts reach the Eagle Rank in the Grand Canyon Council. Out of those, only a few consider to join the Alumni Association.

We are asking you please to consider a message of encouragement to your scouts, to join the Alumni Association once they reach their Eagle Rank. This message may be delivered at the Eagle Board of Review, Eagle Court of Honor or in a one on one conversation. The importance of enrolling new Eagle Scouts in the Alumni Association cannot be overemphasized. It is our desire that these new Eagle Scouts stay connected and continue their service to their communities.

Members of the Grand Canyon Council Alumni Association will be associated with an impressive group of men, many of whom are now in positions of responsibility and prominence in industry, government, military, business, and education.

We can count on you to help us to promote the Alumni Association.

Please visit our website to learn more about our Alumni Association at www.grandcanyonbsa.org/Alumni.

Yours in Scouting Service,

Jeff Nelson
